2. Where a Complaint is made by a member of the Disciplinary Commission, or against a member of the Disciplinary Commission, or where the member is a party or witness to the complaint, or where a conflict of interest between the member and the accused may arise, that person shall not participate in any deliberation of the Disciplinary Commission

3. The Chairperson of the Disciplinary Commission shall be the President of The Association, or an appointed member of the Executive Committee or membership where the President's Chair shall be known to cause a conflict of interest under Article XXXI.2
4. The Disciplinary Commission shall consist, as a minimum of:
 - (a) An Independent Chair, or presiding Deputy Chair, of the Disciplinary Commission, appointed by majority vote of the Annual General Meeting and who shall be external to The Association
 - (b) Two members of the Executive Committee
 - (c) One Ordinary Member of The Association, selected from the team representatives
5. The Chairperson, or presiding Deputy Chairperson, of the Disciplinary Commission shall have and exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes
6. The Disciplinary Commission shall determine matters of procedure in accordance with this constitution and the principles of natural justice, and shall at its discretion, cause to be published such codes or regulations as it may see fit, providing such publications have been approved by the Executive Committee, to be ratified by the General Meeting of Members.
7. Should a complaint be upheld by the Disciplinary Commission, the Commission shall impose such penalty as defined in the Regulations detailed in Article XXXI.2, where no such penalty is detailed in the Regulations it shall be the duty of the Disciplinary Commission to define such penalties

Article XXXII. Amendment to the Constitution

1. Any provision of this constitution may be amended, whether by way of variation, addition or repeal, in the manner provided by this article
2. Every proposal for an amendment to this Constitution shall be moved in the Executive Committee
3. Such a proposal to amend the Constitution may be initiated by a petition submitted to the Chairperson or Secretary of the Executive Committee, signed by not less than 15% of the total voting membership of Association
4. On receipt of such a petition, the Chairperson shall cause to have a Sub-Committee of the Executive Committee established to consider the technical and policy implications of the proposed amendment. This Sub-Committee of the Executive Committee shall report to the Executive Committee within 4 weeks of its establishment
5. Such a proposal shall be cited as a 'Motion to Amend the Constitution' and shall be processed through the Executive Committee no sooner than 8 weeks from its presentation to the Chairperson or Secretary and no later than 16 weeks

6. Any proposal cited as a 'Motion to Amend the Constitution', not properly processed, shall lapse at the next Annual General Meeting and shall not be carried forward to the subsequent General Meeting

7. The Secretary to the Executive Committee shall cause the processed Motion to Amend the Constitution to go to a General Meeting of Members, and shall cause to have a statement of information on the 'Motion to Amend the Constitution' to be generally published. This statement of information shall not advocate that members cast their vote in a particular manner, but it shall provide a series of statements pro and contra to the proposition, as well as general information on the proposition. This statement of information shall be published to the membership not less than 1 week prior to the General Meeting of Members

8. Every Motion to Amend the Constitution shall be submitted for a vote by means of secret ballot at a General Meeting of Members. Such a Motion to Amend the Constitution shall, for the purposes of this Article, be held to have been approved by the members, if upon having been so submitted, a majority of the votes cast shall have been cast in favour of the proposal, providing that the number of votes cast at the Annual General Meeting of Members is not less than 25% of the total voting membership of The Association

9. An Exceptional Motion to Amend the Constitution may be passed through two-thirds majority vote of the voting members of the Executive Committee. Such a motion, when passed, must be publicised to the membership whom shall have 28 calendar days from publication to object. If not less than 10% of the membership of The Association object to the Motion within the timeframe, it shall be referred to a General Meeting as under Article XXXIII.8. If there are no objections, or such objections do not total 10% or more of the total membership of The Association, or such objections are not within 28 calendar days of publication of the duly passed motion, then the Exceptional Motion to Amend the Constitution shall be duly carried and the Constitution amended as described in the Motion.

Article XXXIII. Interpretation

1. The sole power to interpret this constitution and to test the application of Association policy and practice against the terms of the Constitution is vested in the President of The Association and on appeal to the Disciplinary Commission, subject to the terms of this Constitution

2. Any member of The Association shall have the right to seek an interpretation or review by means of written application, stating the grounds for the ruling, to the President or Secretary of the Executive Committee. Such applicants however, must show good cause and standing in order to either initiate or be party to a hearing, save those office holders so empowered by this Constitution to be so notified

3. All personages empowered to interpret this constitution shall do so independently, with reference to this Constitution and previous rulings and shall seek such advice as they deem fit on the matters before them

4. All hearings and submissions under this Article shall be held in public and only those parties to whom notice is given may participate in the hearing or subsequent appeal

5. Where a challenge is exclusively grounded in a challenge to the action of the President, the President shall remit the challenge directly to the Disciplinary Commission, which shall be the only sole hearing
6. The President's ruling shall be binding and issued in writing, but may be subject to an appeal to the Disciplinary Commission
7. An applicant for a ruling, may request the President to make an order that an activity complained of, is repugnant to the provision of this constitution and may seek a direction that the activity so complained of, is ceased or suspended, pending the outcome of the hearing. The President, may at his/her absolute discretion, and by examining the balance of convenience, without prejudice to the outcome of the hearing, order that the activity complained of suspended until he/she has ruled on its constitutionality
8. The President must issue a binding ruling in writing on the request; within 2 weeks of receipt of a request to do so
9. The President shall cause the Secretary of the Executive Committee to publish the ruling. Should the applicant or any Officer holder so notified about the request for a ruling so wish, they may appeal the ruling of the President to the Disciplinary Commission within 1 week
10. The Disciplinary Commission may discharge its functions under this article and act by any two of their number
11. Where a challenge is exclusively grounded in a challenge to the actions of a member of the Disciplinary Commission, which cannot be dealt with by the normal standing orders or procedures, the member of the Disciplinary Commission so concerned, shall not hear the appeal, and the Executive Committee shall temporarily appoint a suitably qualified person to hear the appeal if so required
12. The decision of the majority of the members of the Disciplinary Commission shall, for the purposes of this Article, be the binding decision of the Disciplinary Commission and shall be pronounced by such one of those members as the Disciplinary Commission shall direct, and no other opinion, whether assenting or dissenting, shall be pronounced nor shall the existence of any other such opinion be disclosed
13. An applicant for a ruling, may request the Disciplinary Commission to make an order that an activity complained of, is repugnant to the provision of this constitution and may seek a direction that the activity so complained of, is ceased or suspended, pending the outcome of the hearing. The Disciplinary Commission, may at their absolute discretion, and by examining the balance of convenience, without prejudice to the outcome of the hearing, order that the activity complained of suspended until they have ruled on its constitutionality
14. In all matters relating to the interpretation of this Constitution and the drafting of Standing Orders to regulate the work of bodies established under this Constitution, due regard shall be held for the principles of natural justice

15. Where a member of the Disciplinary Commission cannot discharge their functions, the Executive Committee shall in consultation with the Disciplinary Commission make arrangements for their temporary replacement if so required

16. The Governing law for this Constitution shall be that of the Isle of Man, whose Courts or other Tribunals shall ultimately rule on all matters relating to the interpretation of this Constitution

Article XXXIV. Repeal of the Previous Constitution of the Isle of Man Basketball Association

1. The Constitution of the Isle of Man Basketball Association in force immediately prior to the date of the coming into operation of this Constitution is hereby repealed

2. This Constitution shall come into operation on the 1st day of July, in the year 2012, that is on the day following the expiration of a period of three days after its approval by the members of The Association, signified by a majority of the votes cast at the Annual General Meeting of The Association thereon has in accordance with the terms of the repealed constitution of the Isle of Man Basketball Association
